 Added by: XVI. 1996.4.
 Amended by: XXXI. 2007.40.

24C. (1) Where the Attorney General receives a request made by a judicial or prosecuting authority of any place outside Malta for the temporary seizure of all or any of the moneys or property, movable or immovable, of a person (hereinafter in this article referred to as "the accused") charged or accused in proceedings before the courts of that place of an offence consisting in an act or an omission which if committed in these Islands, or in corresponding circumstances, would constitute any of the offences mentioned in article 24A(1)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (e), the Attorney General may apply to the Criminal Court for an order (hereinafter referred to as a "freezing order") having the same effect as an order as is referred to in article 22A(1) and the provisions of the said article 22A shall, subject to the following provisions of this article, apply mutatis mutandis to that order.

(2) The first proviso of article 22A(1) shall not apply to a freezing order made under this article unless:

- (a) the accused is present in Malta on the date the order is made; or
- (b) the Attorney General or any other interested person present in Malta applies to the court, before or after the order is made, for the application of that proviso to the extent that it is satisfied that the application of the proviso is necessary to allow the accused and his family a decent living.

(3) In the case of a freezing order under this article it shall be sufficient that the order contains at least four of the particulars referred to in article 22A(4) and may also contain any other particulars, including the passport number, of the accused as may be useful to identify the accused.

(4) Subject to the provisions of subarticle (5), a freezing order under this article shall remain in force for a period of six months from the date on which it is made but shall be renewed by the court for further periods of six months upon an application for that purpose by the Attorney General and upon the court being satisfied that:

- (a) the conditions which led to the making of the order still exist; or
- (b) that the accused has been convicted of an offence as is referred to in subarticle (1) in the proceedings referred to in the same subarticle and the sentence in regard to the accused in those proceedings or any confiscation order consequential or accessory thereto, whether made in civil or criminal proceedings, has not been executed:

Provided that where the accused has been convicted as aforesaid but no confiscation order has been made in the sentence in respect of that conviction the freezing order shall nevertheless be renewed as requested by the Attorney General where the court is satisfied that civil or criminal proceedings for the making of such an order are pending or are imminent.

(5) Any freezing order under this article may be revoked by the Court before the expiration of the period laid down in subarticle (4):

- (a) at the request of the Attorney General; or
- (b) at the request of any interested person and after hearing the Attorney General upon the court being satisfied:
 - (i) that the conditions which led to the making of the order no longer exist; or
 - (ii) that there has been a final decision in the proceedings referred to in subarticle (1) by virtue of which the accused has not been found guilty of any offence as is referred to in the same subarticle.

(6) Article 22B shall also apply to any person who acts in contravention of a freezing order under this article.

24D. (1) A confiscation order made by a court outside Malta shall be enforceable in Malta in accordance with the following provisions of this article.

(5) The court shall without delay, set down the application for hearing at an early date, which date shall in no case be later than thirty days from the date of the filing of the application.

(6) The court shall not order the enforcement in Malta of the foreign confiscation order if:

- (c) the foreign confiscation order contains any disposition contrary to the public policy, or the internal public law in force in Malta;

(8) The decision ordering the enforcement of a foreign confiscation order which provides for the forfeiture of immovable property or of any title to such property shall have the effect of transferring that immovable property or that title to the Government of Malta and for the purposes of article 239 of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure the Attorney General shall be considered as the interested party that may obtain the registration of such transfer.

(9) The decision ordering the enforcement of a foreign confiscation order which provides for the forfeiture of unspecified property the value of which corresponds to proceeds shall, upon being registered in the Public Registry Office, create as from the day of registration a hypothec in regard to the debt amounting to the said value.

(9A) When the foreign confiscation order consists in the requirement to pay a sum of money, the court shall convert the amount thereof into Maltese currency at the rate of exchange ruling on the date of the decision ordering the enforcement.

(10) Where the Attorney General receives a request as is referred to in subarticle (2) the Attorney General may, for the purpose of securing any or all of the property which the foreign confiscation order purports to confiscate or forfeit, apply to the Civil Court, First Hall, for the issue of all or any of the precautionary acts referred to in article 830 of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure:

Cap. 12.

Provided that the aforesaid article 830(2) and article 836(1)(c), (d) and (e) and of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure shall not apply to any precautionary act issued by virtue of this article.

FOURTH SCHEDULE
(Article 22)

Guidelines on the exercise of discretion

These guidelines apply to all accused persons aged 16 and over.

In determining the court in which a person accused of an offence against this Ordinance is to be tried the harm or the potential harm caused by the offence charged shall be the principal consideration.

The quantity of the drug is a principal consideration in assessing harm. The purity need not necessarily be taken into account at the initial stage but it may be considered in determining whether a person initially referred for trial before the Criminal Court is to be referred for trial before the Court of Magistrates at a later stage.

The role played by the accused in the crime shall, if sufficient information is available, also be taken into consideration.

In such cases a distinction should be made between persons who played a leading role, a significant role or a lesser role in the commission of the offence.

A leading role in the commission of the offence may be indicated by the following:

- that the accused organized or directed buying and selling of a drug on a commercial scale;
- that the accused had substantial links to and significant influence on other persons in a chain;
- that the accused had close links to the original source of the drugs;
- that the accused made substantial financial gain or had an expectation of substantial financial gain;
- that the accused used a legitimate business as a cover for buying or selling drugs;
- that the accused has abused a position of trust or of significant responsibility in the commission of the offence, for example when the accused is a prison employee or a legal or medical professional.

A significant role in the commission of the offence may be indicated by the following:

- that the accused had an operational or a management function within a chain;
- that the accused involved others in the operation either by exerting pressure or influence upon them or by intimidation or offer of reward;
- that the accused was motivated by the prospect of financial or other advantage, irrespective of whether the accused was acting alone or with others;
- that the accused appeared to be aware and to understand the scale of the operation;
- that the accused, not being a person abusing a position of trust or responsibility, supplied the drug to a prisoner for gain but without coercion.

A lesser role in the commission of the offence may be indicated by the following:

- that the accused has performed a limited role in the commission of the offence and has acted under the direction of others;
- that the accused was engaged by others to commit the offence by pressure, coercion or intimidation;
- that the accused got involved in the commission of the offence because of his naivete or because he was exploited by others;
- that the accused had no influence on those above him in a chain;
- that the accused had very little, if any, understanding of the scale of the operation;
- that taking all circumstances into account it is reasonable to conclude that the accused was involved in the commission of the offence solely for the purpose of obtaining drugs for his own use;
- that the accused made no financial gain from the offence, for example in cases involving a common purchase of a minimal quantity for no profit or the sharing of a minimal quantity between friends on a non-commercial basis.

Aggravating factors resulting from the law shall be taken into consideration.

Other aggravating factors that may be taken into consideration may include:

- the sophisticated nature of concealment of the drug and the nature of any attempt to avoid detection;
- any attempts made to conceal or to dispose of evidence;
- the exposure of others to exceptional danger such as when a drug is cut with harmful substances;
- high purity of the drug
- that the accused has targeted places intended to locate vulnerable persons or has sought to supply drugs to minors;
- that others, especially children and non-users were present when the accused committed the offence.

The following amounts involved in the offence, when the said amounts are known, can be taken as indicative that a person should not be referred for trial before the Criminal Court:

- heroin and cocaine: less than 100 grams
- cannabis: less than 300 grams

Assistance which the accused may have rendered to the Police or to the prosecution may also be taken into account.
